NATION-WIDE MASS ACTION

Dear Joblaw Client,

As you may be aware from recent media reports, the South African Federation of Trade Unions (SAFTU), and affiliated parties, as well the economic Freedom Fighters (EFF) are planning a nation-wide mass action shutdown on Monday, 20 March 2023.

It has been announced, that the purpose of the shutdown is to highlight South Africa's socio-economic issues, including load shedding. The intention is to bring economic activity and movement to a halt by blocking road networks and disrupting the flow of services and good.

We advise our clients to make sure that employees are aware of their rights and responsibilities. Should any of our clients have any concerns or queries, please do not hesitate to contact your nearest branch or head office.
